

MICHAŁ PRÓSZYŃSKI TENOR

From the 2021/22 season, Michał Prószyński is a member of Oper Bern, where his repertoire ranges from Pelléas in Debussy's Pelléas et Mélisande to Steva in Janáček's Jenůfa and Mozart's Pedrillo in Die Entführung aus dem Serail as well as Tamino in Die Zauberflöte and Mime in Wagner's Das Rheingold. During the 2024/25 season, he will make his role debuts as Matteo in Strauss' Arabella as well as Lenski in Tchaikovsky's Jewgeni Onegin.

Michał Prószyński, born in Gdów, Poland, and studied at Hanover Hochschule für Musik, Theater und Medien in 2017-21 with Marek Rzepka, who supervised him at the Cracow University of Music in 2016-17. From 2012 to 2017 he studied classical guitar at the Fryderyk Chopin Music Academy in Warsaw with Marcin Zalewski and from 2011 to 2015 singing with Leszek Świdziński.

In 2021, Michał Prószyński was a finalist in the Robert Schumann Singing Competition and was awarded First Prize in the Bachelor category at the student singing competition at Hanover Hochschule für Musik, Theater und Medien. He has received a scholarship from the Hans and Eugenia Jüttling Foundation since 2017. In 2017, he was named Most Promising Tenor at the III Alida Vane International Singing Competition in Latvia and at the VII International Competition for Duets with Harp. In 2017, he also won the Grand Prix at the First Singing Competition in Jelenia Góra and First Prize and a Special Prize from the Silesia Foundation at the XIX Imrich Godin IUVENTUS CANTI International Competition in Vrable. In 2015, he was awarded Second Prizes at the Jan Kiepura Singing Competition in Sosnowiec and at the Golden Voices International Singing Competition.

In 2022, he made his debut at Verbier Festival in Verdi's Un ballo in maschera as well as in Humperdinck's Hansel and Gretel. In 2021, he performed at Schlossfestspiele Ettlingen as Alfred in Strauß' Die Fledermaus. The tenor made his stage debut in 2015. He was a guest at Staatstheater Braunschweig between 2018 and 2020, singing Vicomte Cascada in Lehár's The Merry Widow and Abdallo in a new production of Verdi's Nabucco at Domplatz Open Air 2019. Michał Prószyński worked with directors including David Bösch, Elmar Goerden, Ewelina Marciniak, Amélie Niermeyer, Silvia Paoli, Aron Stiehl, and Marco Štorman.

In 2017, Michał Prószyński performed Brahms' Neue Liebeslieder Walzer, op. 65 at the 2nd Voice and Piano Chamber Music Festival in Kraków and Harlequin in Szymanowski's Mandragora at the 8th Festival of Polish Music with Kraków Philharmonic. In 2022, he sang Handel's Israel in Egypt with Filharmonia Narodowa Warszawa and Mahler's Das klagende Lied with Berner Symphonieorchester. In 2022, he made his debut at the Munich's Festival Stars & Rising Stars.

He performed under the baton of conductors including Daniel Carter, Nicholas Carter, James Conlon, Srba Dinić, Yoel Gamzou, Stanislav Kochanovsky, Gianandrea Noseda, Sebastian Schwab, and Jan Willem de Vriend and was accompanied by orchestras such as AUKSO Orkiestra, Berner Symphonieorchester, Orkiestra Filharmonii Narodowej, Jewish Chamber Orchestra Munich, Staatsorchester Braunschweig, and Verbier Festival Orchestra.